Gentlemen:

My sincere apologies for bothering you again with yet another signature needed for this matter with regard to the Substitute Reissue Declaration. Please see the comments below from outside counsel. This new declaration has added language which will help move the case forward in getting this patent issued.

Please execute the attached at your earliest convenience as time is of the essence per counsel. Upon signature, please PDF your executed copy to me via email and send the original signature back to me via U.S. registered mail.

Thank you for your understanding and patience.

Best regards,

Ralyn

Hello Gentlemen,

I wanted to attach for you the redlined current version which shows what exactly has been changed, as well as the previous versions you have signed before.

Sometimes, as is the case here, the Patent Examiner's Supervisor will want to re-check everything before the patent is granted and published. This typically does not require so many stages of corrections, but unfortunately the Supervisor feels these corrections will be necessary to get the final grant.

Please feel free to contact me should you have any questions.

Thank you,

Lopa Sengupta

Good afternoon Gentlemen:

Just a kind reminder that we still need your signature on the attached document. If you would please sign and date where indicated and return a PDF copy to me at your earliest convenience so that we can file this with the United States Patent and Trademark Office in due course, it would be most appreciated.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Ms. Lopa Sengupta at the email referenced above.

Thank you.

Best regards,

Ralyn

Hello Vincent and Ansley,

Just a quick note, the Patent Office is holding off on issuing the patent until we get your signatures. They have given us a deadline of next week to submit the signatures. Please return an electronic copy to Ralyn or myself as soon as you are able.

Thank you again,

Lopa

Hello Vincent and Ansley,

We have received the signatures from the other inventors and are waiting on your signatures. This is an urgent matter and we have been given a deadline of this week to submit the signatures in order to get the issuance of the patent. If we are unable to submit the signatures in time, the Examiner may choose to re-open prosecution and there is no guarantee the patent will be issued.

Please let me know as soon as possible if you are unable to have the signatures emailed back in PDF form by the deadline.

Thank you again,

Lops

Hello Mr. Dureau and Mr. Jessup:

Happy New Year and I hope this finds you well. As you know we are awaiting your signatures to the attached Substitute Reissue Declaration. If you could kindly date and execute the attached and forward me a PDF copy it would be most appreciated. Should we not hear from you in the next few days we will have to file the necessary forms to advise that we were unable to locate the remaining inventors.

Thank you in advance for your help with this. I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Ralyn
